Receiving God's grace. Sharing Christ's love with all people

January 2026

Have you been encouraged: "Merry Epiphany!" Probably not. For most Epiphany does not have the same celebrative ring as other 'holy days' in our faith life together. Yet there are vibrant images and stories of this rich season that guide our faith journey in profound ways. Epiphany is so welcome!

There are great reasons to become more excited about the Season of Epiphany. For one, it begins with the familiar, adventurous symbol—the arrival of the Magi (astrologers from the East). The traditional beginning date is Jan. 6th, marking the 12th day after Christmas; it concludes at Transfiguration of our Lord Sunday, Ash Weds follows closely). Matthew 2 tells us these magi (Greek word) were directed by angels and a star, bringing gifts, and wanting to bend their lives in reverence of this new revelation.

[Have you noticed, though, that we usually include 'the wise men' in the Christmas crèche, even though their arrival is understood to have taken place months, or up to two years, after the birth of Jesus—it took time to follow this star, traveling as far away as Persia, modern-day Iran.]

More importantly, as Epiphany season unfolds it becomes clearer that our community of faith is invited into incredibly large biblical themes: as the central meaning of wise men traveling from the far East—these wealthy spiritual seekers of greater wisdom and understanding emerge as icons for us of 'the way of Christ to the gentiles' (non-Jews). So even at its beginning, the voice of Epiphany is calling us—that we rekindle our seeking spirit; that we become a culture of faith attuned to our neighbors who are seeking real life, with safe and nurturing community...in these solitary days that are coined by experts as a 'loneliness epidemic', especially among young people (more on this downward side—the deceptive solitary influence of the internet—at another time).

"What's to love about Epiphany"...has its roots in the essential meaning of Christmas. We hear this announced and colored into the verses with the repeated phrase, "God in flesh made manifest" (from the hymn, Songs of Thankfulness and Praise):

from verse 1 – manifested by the star, to the sages from afar;
verse 2 – manifest at Jordan's stream (Jesus' baptism); and at Cana wedding guest...
changing water into wine;
verse 3 – manifest in making whole (the many healings of Jesus), ever bringing good from ill;
and in verse 4 – in Jesus' teaching and embodiment of grace...that we learn to imitate Christ and be instruments and manifestations of God's great epiphanies.

I appreciate how Diane Roth invites Epiphany. She suggests: as when you are about your work, or study, or play, or regular Sunday morning worship...and suddenly, somehow, something will happen, and you will say, 'aha', and you will know, just know, who Jesus is: "It could be as small a thing as a handful of water, shimmering, a line that leaps out at you from a book, or a song, a small piece of a small conversation that you had, just because you "showed up".

We will share stories in the weeks ahead that flesh out 'how we embody Christ to one another and with our neighbor'.

Happy Epiphany! Pastor Tim

UKD Tumaini Lutheran School Scholarships

When our Tanzanian guests, Pastor Wilson Nyakachewa and Pastor Ezekiel Mwambungu visited us in October, they talked to us about the Tumaini Lutheran Bible School in Tanzania. Both pastors enlightened us regarding the need for scholarships for young boys & girls to attend the school, as well as the need for solar panels in their kitchen, which will enable them to cook food for the school without the open fire and smoke.

While discussions regarding funds for the solar panels are still ongoing, a scholarship fund for girls (and boys) to attend the Lutheran school is already in place. Through a Mission Investment Fund and through ongoing donations from churches and individuals they have been able to sponsor children every year. It now takes $800 for each child to go to school.

If you would like to take part in this outreach mission with our companion synod in Tanzania, you can donate using our jar at the back of the church. If you wish to make out a check, please make it payable to: NWIM Synod, with a note "Scholarship Fund" on the check.

All donations go directly to our Synod office, which then puts the money into the Mission Investment Fund to cover the cost of tuition, room & board for each student.

To date we have raised $1055.00 toward sending a girl to school!

Angel Tree Thank You

This year, Bailey Morley worked with First Baptist Church on planning an Angel Tree. Bailey organized our tree at SMLC so that members of our church could participate. She was so amazed at everyone's generosity toward purchasing items for a family of 5 in our community. Many people approached her to thank her for bringing the Angel Tree to the congregation this year. Her favorite was when Rose told her that was "a very fun group project"!

Bailey hopes to continue partnering with First Baptist in the future.

Community Outreach at SMLC

On December 14th, Shepherd of the Mountains hosted “Our Common Ground” a Community Interfaith Choir Concert at our church. Many came out to listen to the Interfaith Choir sing as well as enjoy the creche displays that were set up in our narthex. This event was free to the public.

Our Common Ground is an interdenominational volunteer group that, since 2003, has been displaying Christmas Nativity sets from the community in various churches each December. This year’s event was accompanied by a wonderful interfaith choir to sing in association with the display.

Above: Close to 150 were in attendance to hear the choir sing at our church.

Thank you to Pastor Tim, along with volunteers from our church, who made this outreach event possible. Please watch our upcoming newsletters and weekly emails for more musical events coming to our church in 2026.

If you would like to be a part of our Outreach Board, or help with these events, please talk to Pastor Tim.
